Empowering Those That Empower Others.

Every educator we empower brings new students to the network.

At every turn of the wheel, it also accelerates.

Every new student is a potential future educator, in turn empowering more individuals with independent Bitcoin education.

This is how we ignite and grow the grassroots Bitcoin education movement.

Every Human Is Born With Boundless Potential.

Education determines whether we believe in that potential.
Money determines if we have the power to act on it.

Yet we've entrusted both to the very institutions we should be questioning.

*What if we separated education and money from the state?
What if they became grassroots, independent, community-led?*
